II. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

6. That Plaintiff entered into a $2,000,000 loan agreement with Defendant.
  7. Plaintiff signed a personal guaranty for the loan and granted Defendant a deed of trust on that real property located at 611 S. 6th Street, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101 ("Subject Property") whose as collateral for the loan.
  8. The Subject Property, whose Assessor Parcel No. is 139-34-410-221, is a commercial office building that housed Plaintiff's law practice.
  9. The Subject Property is also subject to a 10 year lease with two, 5 year options at the discretion of tenant, the Law Offices of Brian C. Padgett.

- 1           10. On June 6, 2018 Plaintiff made a loan payment of $150,000 to Defendant which left a 2           balance of only $200,000 on the original loan.
- 3           11. On October 24, 2019 Plaintiff had a conference call with Defendant Fanticola and his
4           in-house lawyer, Guy Whitworth, over the status of his loan and at that time Plaintiff
5           made Fanticola and Whitworth aware that he would be practicing law from his home
6           office at 1672 Liege Drive in Henderson, Nevada 89012 for the rest of the 2019 year.
- 7           12. Plaintiff made clear that any correspondence regarding the loan should also be sent to 8           him at his home office.
- 9           13. On December 16, 2019, Defendant filed a Notice of Breach and Election to Sell with 10           the Clark County Recorder.
- 11           14. No Notice of Breach and Election to Sell was sent to Plaintiff via registered or certified
12           mail as required pursuant to NRS Chapter 107 and, as a result, Plaintiff was unaware
13           of the Notice.
- 14           15. On or about February 2020, Plaintiff mailed written notice to Defendant Fanticola that 15           he would continue to work at his home office for the remainder of 2020.
- 16           16. The written notice made clear that all correspondence for the loan should be sent to 17           Plaintiff's home office at 1672 Liege Drive, Henderson, Nevada 89012.
- 18           17. On February 11, 2020, Defendant, who was a second position lienholder on the 611 S.
19           6th Street property filed suit against the first position lien holder over lien priority.
- 20           18. Plaintiff was not noticed or named in the lawsuit.
- 21           19. On or about April 10, 2020, Defendant's lawyer, Guy Whitworth ("Whitworth"),
22           contacted Plaintiff regarding vagrants camping along the Subject Property perimeter
23           indicating he and Defendant were aware Plaintiff was working from his 1672 Liege
24           Drive home office.
- 25           20. On April 10, 2020, Whitworth sent Plaintiff an email of a Stipulation granting a
26           temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction to Defendant which prevented
27           the first place lienholder from foreclosing on the subject property.
- 28           21. This was the first time Plaintiff was made aware of that lawsuit.
- 29           22. Another email from Whitworth on April 10, 2020 told Plaintiff that "to date we have 30           not authorized sending notice (of the Trustee's Sale)".

- 1           23. This was the first time Plaintiff was made aware that a Notice of Default had been filed
2           against the Subject Property since Defendant filed the Notice 5 months prior in time.
3           24. Thereafter, Plaintiff then mailed a letter to Defendant requesting a copy of the Notice
4           of Breach because he never received the Notice when it was originally filed on
5           December 16, 2019.
6           25. Plaintiff also made a request for Accounting of the loan balance and pay off amount in
7           that letter pursuant to NRS Chapter 107.
8           26. The information requested was never provided.
9           27. On March 26, 2021 Defendant Fanticola filed a Notice of Entry of Order granting his
10          Motion for Summary Judgment motion regarding clarity on the lien priority.
11          28. Plaintiff was never provided a copy of this Order affecting the Subject Property and 12          Plaintiff's property rights.
13          29. On April 5, 2021 a Notice of Trustee's Sale was filed with the Recorder by Defendant
14          to hold a foreclosure sale for the Subject Property on April 26, 2021.
15          30. Plaintiff was not served with the Notice of Trustee's Sale pursuant to NRS Chapter
16          107.
17          31. The Trustee's Sale was eventually stayed but Defendants never noticed a continuance
18          of the Trustee's Sale beyond the April 26, 2021 date.
19          32. Plaintiff was never served with notice of any continuance of the Trustee's Sale beyond
20          the April 26, 2021 date.
21          33. Plaintiff did not even find out about the April 26, 2021 foreclosure sale until advised
22          by a disinterested third party on May 24, 2021.
23          34. Plaintiff then immediately contacted Whitworth via email and noted that he was never
24          served with a Notice of Trustee's Sale as required by NRS Chapter 107.
25          35. Plaintiff also told Whitworth that he declined to waive his right to legal notice and
26          agreed to accept service at his 1672 Liege Drive home office in Henderson, Nevada
27          89012.
28          36. Neither Whitworth nor Defendant responded to the Plaintiff's message for more than ten days after Plaintiff contacted him.

- 1           37. During that time, Defendant quickly wrapped up his lawsuit on May 27, 2021 and then
2           just as quickly held a Trustee's Sale of the Subject Property the very next day - May
3           28, 2021 - without giving notice to Plaintiff pursuant to NRS Chapter 107.
4           38. After the foreclosure, Defendants failed to post the Trustee's Deed of Sale on the 5           property.
6           39. Plaintiff did not even know that Defendant had foreclosed on the Subject Property until 7           June 6, 2020, when he was able to make contact with Defendant Fanticola.
8           40. Thereafter, without notice to Plaintiff or tenant Law Offices, Defendant entered the 9           office building on the Subject Property and moved the entire contents of Plaintiff's Law
10          Office to a storage facility without notice.
11          41. No Notice to Pay or Quit was posted on the Subject Property nor served on Plaintiff or 12          the tenant Law Offices.
13          42. No Notice of Unlawful Detainer was posted on the Subject Property nor served on
14          Plaintiff or the tenant Law Offices prior to eviction.
15          43. Thereafter, Plaintiff was contacted by the storage company Defendant hired to move
16          Plaintiff's belongings out of the Subject Property.
17          44. A contract was sent to Plaintiff to pay for storage costs and Defendant supplied the 18          storage company with Plaintiff's home office address of 1672 Liege Drive, Henderson,
19          NV 89012 showing he was knowledgeable at all times of the proper contact address for 20          Plaintiff.

14 adequate remedy at law.

15 55. As a proximate result of the negligent actions of Defendant, the Plaintiff has suffered
16 damages and will continue to suffer additional damages in an amount to be fully

13                   including statutory punitive damages pursuant to state and federal law, all to be
14                   proven at the time of trial.
15                  62. Because Plaintiff was compelled to bring this cause of action for the taking of his
16                   property interest, Plaintiff is entitled to a further award of actual and/or reasonable
